No. 1720.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India in the Financial Department, Simla, under date the 8th August 1864.

READ letter to the Civil Pay Master, Fort William, No. 1911, dated the 12th July 1864, enquiring on what grounds he has held that the Tour Allowance drawn by the Secretaries and their Establishments who have come to Simla with the Governor General is liable to deduction on account of the Income Tax.

Read Office Memorandum from Civil Pay Master, Fort William, No. 4405, dated the 26th July 1864, in reply to the above.

RESOLUTION.—The Allowance in question, as evidenced by the fact that it is called a Tour Allowance, does not in any degree partake of the nature of a Deputation Allowance or personal emolument, but is of the character of those which are exempted from Income Tax under Section 129 of Act XXXII. of 1860.

The Governor General in Council accordingly decides that the Tour Allowance is not liable to Income Tax, and directs that all deductions made on this account, even for past years, be refunded.
